Russia launched 162 drones and an Iskander overnight and hit the Trypillia plant again. A drone killed a worker at the Zaporizhzhia nuclear plant. - AFRICOM: Police killed three protesters in Mogadishu eviction clashes, and former president Sharif says there is "no legitimate government." ActionSA offered the DA the Johannesburg mayoralty in return for Tshwane. The Congolese army says it has halted the FRN advance in South Kivu. [1][3][5]

SOMALIA: Deadly eviction clashes in Mogadishu; Sharif says there is "no legitimate government"

Somali Guardian reports police enforcing demolitions in Daynile district killed three protesters on 8 November, after which armed residents ambushed police, who retreated leaving wounded officers behind; the two sides held positions into Monday. [1] Former President Sharif Sheikh Ahmed, whose residence shelters the Supreme Court judges, reportedly said Somalia "had no legitimate government." [1] Pre-window context: Ibrahim Idle Suleiman was sworn in as the new chief justice on 7 November. [2]

Assessment: The constitutional standoff is turning into armed local confrontation ahead of the 14-18 November talks.

SOUTH AFRICA: Mashaba offers DA the Johannesburg mayoralty, on conditions; ANC centralises talks

ActionSA's Herman Mashaba proposed that he and Helen Zille both stand aside in Johannesburg so the DA can name an acceptable mayor, in return for ActionSA's Nasiphi Moya taking Tshwane; a DA insider called it negotiating "in bad faith." [3] The ANC will skip Wednesday's Council of the Left meeting, with Fikile Mbalula leading a central task team and Nomvula Mokonyane saying the party could go into opposition. [4] MK leads eThekwini with 38.3%. [4]

Assessment: Johannesburg and Tshwane now hinge on a DA-ActionSA deal on candidates.

DRC: Army says FRN halted at Bulambika and announces counter-offensive

The army's regional spokesman said "the enemy has been stopped at Bulambika" and that forces are preparing to retake lost areas; the army blames Rwanda. [5] Two civilians were found shot dead in Bulambika, probably killed when the FRN entered. [6]

Assessment: The Kalehe front has stabilised for now, but a counter-offensive could displace more civilians along the RN3.

DRC (ITURI): Violence in Djugu threatens Ebola response

The interim UN humanitarian coordinator said violence near the Plaine Savo displacement site, home to more than 76,000 people, wounded at least five civilians and suspended an assessment mission; Ituri holds about 70% of confirmed Ebola cases. [7] WHO's latest update counts 10,668 confirmed cases and 5,198 deaths in the DRC as of 3 November. [8]

Assessment: Insecurity in the worst-hit province makes the outbreak harder to contain.

KENYA: Three weeks without a new Ebola case

Kenya's nine cases come from a single cluster with "no evidence of community transmission"; Health CS Aden Duale urged WHO to act against "punitive restrictions" on travel. [9]

Assessment: Kenya could reach end-of-outbreak status by late December.

SUDAN: Drone strike kills two at North Darfur market

A suspected army drone strike near Kabkabiya killed at least two people on 8 November; the army's responsibility is unconfirmed. [10] Displaced people from El Fasher at a camp near Ed Daein say aid covers "not even a quarter" of needs. [11] A lawyer said "the army is not the institution that should arrest" Ahmed Haroun. [12]

Assessment: Haroun's case is becoming a test of the army's ties to the Islamist old guard.

LIBYA: Dbeibah and UN envoy review dialogue committee

PM Dbeibah met UN envoy Hanna Tetteh to review the 4+4 dialogue committee and called elections "essential to ending Libya's transitional period." [13]

Assessment: The political track is active but stalled.

NIGERIA: Bandits kill a vigilante and 10 relatives in Zamfara

Pre-window onset. Police say gunmen killed a government-backed vigilante and 10 relatives in Maradun and abducted 13; gunmen also killed three residents in Plateau. [14] [15]

Assessment: Gangs targeting community defence volunteers discourage cooperation with security forces.

Collection gap: Nothing in-window on Lissu's bail or appeal, Burkina Faso, Niger, Ethiopia-Eritrea, M23 or El Fasher. A reported ADF attack near Beni could not be opened. Sudan Tribune, Hiiraan, IOL and News24 did not load.

// CENTCOM

ISRAEL: Knesset sworn in today; Eisenkot bloc nominates Kahana as speaker

Eisenkot and Liberman reportedly agreed the speaker should come from Yashar and that they would approach UTJ and Shas with a softened draft bill. [16] [17] On Tuesday Yashar nominated Matan Kahana for speaker and proposed Liberman to chair the Foreign Affairs and Defense Committee. [18] The bloc holds 48 seats, 13 short of 61; UTJ says it will not vote to replace Speaker Ohana before a government forms, and Shas still sides with Netanyahu, who repeated his call for a unity government he would lead. [16] [17] The swearing-in had not been reported by 1100Z.

Assessment: The speaker vote is the first test of Eisenkot's majority; with UTJ holding out, Ohana likely stays for now.

IRAN / US: Trump calls the war "effectively over" and holds off a new offensive; Tehran rejects talk of talks

After meeting the Qatari PM with Vance on 9 November, Trump said "Iran militarily is effectively over" and that he would keep the blockade and Task Force Iron Gate in place, with US forces "locked and loaded." [19] He said Gulf states prefer the status quo and called preventing an Iranian nuclear weapon

"non-negotiable." [20] [21] The Qatari PM reportedly presented Iran's two-day proposal; Rubio said "I wouldn't say we're on the verge of a breakthrough." [22] SNSC Secretary Mohsen Rezaei called the talk of negotiations "fake news," and Pezeshkian said Iran "will not surrender to force and bullying." [19] [21] Pre-window context: Rubio had called Iran's terms "outrageous and ridiculous." [23]

Assessment: The shift to a pressure-based status quo lowers the near-term strike risk but leaves the core terms deadlocked.

QATAR / G7: Qatari PM briefs Europeans and Saudi Arabia in Paris

Reuters reports Sheikh Mohammed bin Abdulrahman Al Thani was due to meet the UK, French, German and Italian foreign ministers and Saudi Arabia on the sidelines of the G7 in Paris on Tuesday; France said ministers would address "in particular the Iranian crisis." [24]

Assessment: Doha is widening support for the two-day proposal track.

ENERGY: Brent dips below $90 for the first time since August

Brent fell 3.6% to $94.83 on Monday and briefly dipped below $90 on Tuesday, at $90.32 midday UAE time. [25] [26] UA.News, citing OilPrice, puts it about 25% below the late-October peak above $117. [27] The UAE says its exports are close to 4.4m bpd. [22]

Assessment: The market is pricing de-escalation without a deal, so a new strike or tanker attack could reverse the move sharply.

SAUDI ARABIA / YEMEN: East-West pipeline hit; missiles intercepted over Riyadh

An energy ministry official said an attack on the East-West pipeline in the Medina region, the Red Sea route that bypasses Hormuz, caused a "limited fire" and that "pipeline operations were unaffected." [28] The coalition said it destroyed ballistic and cruise missiles over Riyadh and the south and blamed the Houthis; Riyadh schools moved online. [28] [29] Houthi media raised the toll from the weekend Saudi strike to 44, up from 33. [28]

Assessment: Houthi strikes on the Hormuz bypass make this the most active kinetic risk to Gulf energy flows.

IRAQ: Al Sheeb crossing with Iran reopens; US presses for wider closures

Iraq reopened the Al Sheeb crossing in Maysan, closed since 21 October, and will shut Mandali temporarily on Friday. [30] FM Fuad Hussein said the US Treasury asked Baghdad to close most crossings and that "closing all of them would be difficult." [30]

Assessment: Baghdad's partial compliance leaves gaps in Iron Gate's land prong.

IRAQ (KURDISTAN): Baghdad sends LPG while Khor Mor stays offline

PM Al Zaidi ordered the Oil Ministry to supply LPG to the Kurdistan Region until Khor Mor output recovers; the KRG puts lost generation at 2,500-2,800 MW and has activated the Dukan and Darbandikhan hydro plants. [31] No restart or attribution has been announced.

Assessment: The outage looks set to last days.

UAE / HORMUZ: Oil spill closes Khor Fakkan beach

UAE authorities closed Khor Fakkan beach after an oil spill was seen on 9 November. [25] No new UKMTO incident was found in the window; JMIC still rates the threat "severe" and the IRGC's mine claims remain uncorroborated. [32]

Assessment: The spill is probably linked to recent tanker strikes off the UAE coast; this is inferred.

GAZA: One killed in Khan Younis; storm floods about 70,000 tents

Israeli fire killed a man and wounded four in Khan Younis; the ceasefire toll is now 1,613. [33] [34] Gaza's Government Media Office says a storm flooded about 70,000 tents and killed at least five people. [34]

Assessment: Steady low-level deaths continue alongside a worsening winter humanitarian situation.

PAKISTAN: Militants overrun police post in Hangu

Attackers overran a police post in Hangu district, killing one officer and abducting three, who were later recovered; there has been no claim and the date of the attack is not stated. [35]

Assessment: Attacks on police posts in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa continue.

EGYPT: Court orders Mada Masr shut; editor faces trial

A judge ordered the independent outlet Mada Masr shut, and editor Lina Attalah goes on trial this week for "spreading false information"; more than 100 organisations have condemned the moves. [36]

Assessment: The crackdown will further narrow independent reporting from inside Egypt.

Collection gap: Nothing verified in-window for Lebanon, Syria, Jordan or Central Asia. No new UKMTO advisory, CENTCOM statement or reported US strike on Iran in the window. Haaretz and Anadolu originals did not load.

// EUCOM

UKRAINE / RUSSIA: Abu Dhabi talks open; Kremlin and Europe disagree on Europe's role

US-mediated trilateral talks opened in Abu Dhabi on 10 November and resume on 11 November. [37] [38] Ukraine's team includes Rustem Umerov, Kyrylo Budanov and Davyd Arakhamia; ABC lists Yuri Ushakov alongside Medinsky for Russia; Witkoff and Kushner represent the US. [38] [39] Kushner said the gaps had "narrowed" and that Putin can reach a deal "under the right conditions"; no agreement was announced. [37] Peskov said the format is trilateral only, while Ukrinform says Ukraine met UK, French, German, Italian, NATO and Commission representatives beforehand. [40] [38] An Azerbaijani agency reports SACEUR joined the table, which is uncorroborated. [41]

Assessment: The talks have started without a breakthrough, and Europe's role is now the most visible procedural dispute.

UKRAINE: 162 drones and an Iskander overnight; Trypillia plant hit again

Ukraine's Air Force says Russia launched 162 drones and an Iskander-M overnight, with hits at 19 locations and at least 14 injured. [42] Centrenergo says the Trypillia thermal plant was hit again with "extremely serious" consequences, and DTEK reports power cuts across much of Dnipro and Kamianske. [42] Zelensky said Russia wants to "divide Ukraine along the Dnipro River." [42]

Assessment: Moscow kept up grid pressure on the eve of the talks.

UKRAINE (OCCUPIED): Drone kills worker at Zaporizhzhia nuclear plant

The IAEA says a drone killed an employee at the Zaporizhzhia nuclear plant on 9 November, the second in about two weeks; Grossi called it "unacceptable." The IAEA did not assign responsibility. [43]

Assessment: Direct hits on plant staff raise the stakes of any energy ceasefire.

RUSSIA: Ukraine claims strike on Iskander propellant plant near St Petersburg

Ukraine's General Staff says it struck the Morozov plant in Leningrad region, which it says makes solid-propellant charges for Iskander-M missiles; damage is not independently confirmed. [44] ISW says Ukraine "continued its long-range strikes on Russian missile production facilities." [45]

Assessment: Kyiv is shifting deep strikes toward missile production.

UKRAINE: ISW records no advances on 9 November

ISW assessed that "Neither Russian nor Ukrainian forces advanced on November 9" and noted fewer Russian MoD capture claims recently. [45]

Assessment: One static day is not a trend.

FRANCE: Education strike and youth marches on 10 November

Teaching and student unions called a strike for 10 November, criticising the government for excluding public-sector workers from PM Lecornu's 9 November wage conference. [46] Interior ministry counts have fallen from 550,000 on 17 October to 146,000 on 7 November. [47] No 10 November figures were available by 1100Z.

Assessment: The movement is narrowing to education.

GEORGIA: Constitutional Court hearing on banning five opposition parties begins

The hearing on Georgian Dream's suit to ban five opposition parties was moved to 10 November after a judge fell ill, with sessions planned through 13 November; UNM says the outcome "has already been politically decided." [48] China's Vice-President Han Zheng visited Georgia, and Zakharova said Moscow is ready to reopen its embassy. [49]

Assessment: A ruling this week could remove Georgia's main opposition parties and draw further EU measures.

LITHUANIA: Nausėda waits on China meeting amid Taiwan office name report

Delfi reported that Vilnius asked Taiwan's office to change its name; the foreign minister called this inaccurate, and Nausėda said "We will wait and see" pending a meeting with Chinese diplomats this week. [50]

Assessment: Lithuania may be preparing to reverse its 2021 Taiwan policy.

Collection gap: No 10 November French turnout figures, Abu Dhabi day-one readout or Russian MoD overnight claims. Nothing new on Moldova, Turkey, Serbia or NATO and Baltic incidents. Balkan Insight, civil.ge and OC Media did not load.

// INDOPACOM

INDONESIA: Vice President Gibran tells Prabowo he intends to resign

After a 2.5-hour meeting on 10 November, presidential spokesperson Prasetyo Hadi said Gibran Rakabuming Raka "expressed his intention to resign in light of the evolving situation." [51] [52] Prasetyo denied reports that Prabowo rejected the request but did not say he accepted it; Antara says Gibran also asked for "another chance" to prove his diplomas valid in the administrative court. [51] [52] Parliament

reconvened the same day to weigh an inquiry into Gibran's eligibility, which analysts see as a possible step towards impeachment. [53] No formal resignation has been submitted.

Assessment: A resignation by Jokowi's son would be the sharpest break yet in the Prabowo-Jokowi alliance and would likely reshape the expected reshuffle.

CHINA / US / RUSSIA: Beijing still noncommittal on a three-way APEC meeting

Asked about a Wall Street Journal report that Xi would not join a meeting allowing open discussion of nuclear arms control, MFA spokesperson Guo Jiakun said China "is communicating with relevant parties" and had "no information to offer at the moment." [54] Newsmax, citing the WSJ, reports Beijing wants prepared statements and set outcomes while Washington wants flexible talks. [55] No new Kremlin confirmation was found.

Assessment: Agenda disagreement, especially over arms control, is now the main obstacle to a three-way meeting.

REGIONAL MARKETS: Chip rally lifts Kospi 4.4%, Nikkei above 60,000, Taiex 2.5%

The Kospi closed up 4.39% at 5,239.13, triggering a buy-side sidecar, with SK hynix up 6.69%. [56] The Nikkei closed up 2.9% at 60,459.58, led by SoftBank. [57] [58] The Taiex closed up 2.52% at 42,711.92, though foreign investors were net sellers of NT$34.12bn. [59] Taiwan's October exports rose 58.9% to a record US$96.76bn. [60]

Assessment: The rebound reverses last week's sell-off but is fragile ahead of Wednesday's US inflation data.

TAIWAN: Defence minister says PLA running "area denial" drills with Liaoning group

Defence Minister Wellington Koo said China "has indeed conducted area denial drills in the Western Pacific with the Liaoning carrier group"; China has not declared any drills. [61] An unofficial tracker of MND releases shows 4 PLA aircraft and 9 vessels in the 24 hours to 0600 on 10 November; the MND site did not load, so this is unconfirmed. [62]

Assessment: The low air count alongside carrier activity suggests the main PLA effort is maritime and beyond the ADIZ reporting frame.

CHINA / US: Nvidia board opens probe; Trump defends Huang

Nvidia's board said independent directors will investigate Jensen Huang's relationship with an executive reported to be a Chinese intelligence asset and that it has "no reason to believe" secrets were compromised. [63] Trump called Huang "an honorable guy" and said he might join the Shenzhen trip; Nvidia fell 4.3%. [63] [57] China's MFA called the allegation "purely unsubstantiated." [54]

Assessment: The case is now tied to APEC and export-control politics.

NORTH KOREA: New high-speed torpedo tested; Kim Yo Jong attacks UN chief

KCNA says a new high-speed torpedo system was tested in the East Sea on 9 November, with navy deployment planned for early 2027. [64] Kim Yo Jong called Guterres's call for inter-Korean military dialogue "prejudiced and irresponsible." [65] No ballistic launch was reported.

Assessment: Pyongyang is continuing undersea weapons development while rejecting dialogue.

PHILIPPINES: Sara Duterte's defence opens

Duterte's lawyers called the first of 24 witnesses and called an undeclared-property claim "malicious and completely false"; a prosecution analyst puts unexplained assets above 800m pesos, including remittances from China and Hong Kong entities. [66] Conviction requires two-thirds of senators. [66]

Assessment: The China and Hong Kong remittance claim adds a foreign-influence angle to a trial that will shape the 2028 race.

SOUTH CHINA SEA: Philippine Navy counts 29 Chinese vessels

The Philippine Navy monitored 29 Chinese vessels at four features from 3 to 8 November, including 9 coast guard ships at Second Thomas Shoal and 3 PLAN ships at Scarborough. [67] No new physical incident was found.

Assessment: Presence is steady but below October's surge.

PAPUA NEW GUINEA / CHINA: Beijing offers more LNG purchases after Taiwan office closure

China's MFA said it is "willing to increase imports" of PNG LNG and welcomed PNG's closure of Taiwan's office. [68] Pre-window onset: Taipei announced it would close the office and suspended spot purchases of PNG LNG, and the State Department said it was "deeply concerned." [69] Former PM O'Neill says Taiwan's long-term LNG contract is at risk. [70]

Assessment: Beijing is replacing Taiwan as an energy customer to erode Taipei's Pacific presence.

Collection gap: Taiwan MND daily releases did not load. Nothing substantive in-window for the Senkakus, Japan defence, Myanmar, India-Pakistan, India-China or Australia. Japan Times, Manila Times and CNBC did not load.

UNITED STATES: Massie forces Hegseth impeachment question; vote or tabling motion possible by Wednesday

Rep. Thomas Massie brought eight impeachment articles against Defense Secretary Hegseth to the floor on 9 November as a question of privilege; if Speaker Johnson rules it privileged, a vote must come "within two legislative days." [71] The articles cite War Powers violations over Iran, the killing of at least 243 suspected drug traffickers, the Maduro operation, Yemen strikes and retaliation against Sen. Mark Kelly. [71] Trump said he would "stand by" Hegseth even if impeached; ABC reports only three Republican votes are needed alongside all Democrats. [72]

Assessment: The decisive vote is likely a leadership motion to table, where absences among defeated Republicans could settle it.

UNITED STATES: Lame-duck agenda set; funding runs out after 11 December

House Republicans choose a new leader on Tuesday, with Scalise and Jordan competing after Johnson declined to run; Senate Republicans also hold leadership elections. [73] Government funding runs out after 11 December with no deal, and Massie's Epstein discharge petition is two signatures short of 218. [73] [74]

Assessment: Leadership contests and a shutdown deadline will crowd the Hegseth vote.

UNITED STATES: Trump questions midterm results, says "It's all about the machines"

Trump wrote on Truth Social that "It's all about the machines, which are far more important than the voter!" and questioned whether the election was "honest," after saying on election night he was "absolutely willing" to accept the results. [75] [76] Experts told Forbes he has little legal ability to intervene. [76]

Assessment: The rhetoric raises the chance of federally backed challenges once Mississippi and Alaska certify.

UNITED STATES (ALASKA): Peltola's lead grows to 2,517

Monday's Division of Elections report has Mary Peltola on 48.47% and Dan Sullivan on 47.33%, a lead of 2,517, up from 637. [77] No candidate is above 50%, so ranked-choice tabulation on 18 November still applies; a larger update is expected Tuesday. [77]

Assessment: The trend favours Peltola, but her first-choice share will decide how much the ranked-choice round matters.

UNITED STATES (MISSISSIPPI): Colom lead unchanged as cure deadline passes

AP still has Colom ahead by 2,574 with about 97% counted; the affidavit cure deadline was 1700 local on 10 November and counties certify by 13 November. [78] No lawsuit has been filed, but Hyde-Smith's lawyers want affidavit ballots preserved and the state GOP chair promises "every legal option." [78]

Assessment: The next flashpoint is litigation after certification rather than the count.

MEXICO / US: Harfuch discloses DEA meeting; insists operations are Mexican

García Harfuch disclosed a meeting with DEA Administrator Terrance Cole on intelligence sharing, extraditions and arms trafficking and said "Las acciones en territorio mexicano corresponden exclusivamente a las autoridades mexicanas." [79] He said the DEA shared information used to locate "R2"; no formal agreements were announced. [80]

Assessment: Mexico is fencing off sovereignty while deepening intelligence ties, likely to blunt US pressure for unilateral action.

MEXICO (SINALOA): MXN 900m security package; IEDs and drone seized in Mazatlán

Harfuch announced MXN 900 million for Sinaloa, including nearly 200 vehicles and armoured trucks and three drone units within 30 days; the governor acknowledged peace has not been restored. [81] Marines in Mazatlán seized three improvised explosive devices and a drone. [82]

Assessment: The emphasis on armour and counter-drone gear shows how far the Sinaloa war has moved toward explosives and drones.

CANADA: Carney prepares Asia trip as China trade hits record

Carney named a CEO for the CAD 25bn Canada Strong Fund and leaves on 11 November for ASEAN, APEC, where a meeting with Xi is expected, and the Francophonie. [83] [84] Third-quarter Canada-China trade hit a record CAD 36.78bn. [84]

Assessment: Ottawa's trade diversification toward China during US tariff talks may irritate Washington.

Collection gap: No Mississippi count after the cure deadline, no verified account of Miller's first day and no AP call in Colorado's 4th. Mississippi Today, NBC, NPR and the Washington Post did not load.

// SOUTHCOM

COLOMBIA: Retaliatory bombing in Catatumbo; Santa Rosa del Sur figures conflict

President De La Espriella ordered a bombing in Catatumbo on 9 November that he says killed four and captured six dissidents, vowing "por cada acción terrorista, la respuesta del gobierno será letal." [85] [86] The Defence Ministry still blames the ELN for the Santa Rosa del Sur drone attack; the mayor says he has no official confirmation and questions why the base's anti-drone system failed. [87] [88] Wounded figures range from 16 officially to 35-38 in El Tiempo and about 50 per the mayor. [87] [89] [88] The ELN says its leader Silvana Guerrero is alive after the 30 October strike in Venezuela. [90]

Assessment: An explicit tit-for-tat air campaign makes further drone attacks on bases likely.

HAITI: Drone strike destroys 400 Mawozo leader's house

A police drone task force backed by Salvadoran soldiers destroyed a house used by 400 Mawozo leader Wilson Joseph on 8 November; he was not inside, and sources say up to 20 gunmen were killed. [91] The task force is supported by Erik Prince's Vectus Global; Rubio said the US is not actively involved. [91]

Assessment: A second high-value strike in days points to a sustained decapitation campaign and a rising reprisal risk.

VENEZUELA: Rubio sets mid-December target for new Supreme Court

Rubio said a renewed TSJ should be in place by mid-December, followed by a new CNE, after which acting president Delcy Rodríguez would declare the presidency vacant and start a six-month election clock. [92] Foro Penal confirmed the release of businessman José Enrique Rincón. [93]

Assessment: December's institutional steps are the first test of the Rodríguez government's compliance with the timetable.

ECUADOR: Coastal curfew ends with 2,503 detained

The curfew ended at 0500 on 10 November with no extension. [94] The final tally is 2,503 detained and 242 firearms seized, up from 2,292. [95] Two women were shot dead in Guayaquil on 9 November. [96]

Assessment: A rebound in coastal homicides before the 29 November elections is likely.

CUBA: Evening deficits near 1,800 MW

The UNE forecast a 1,795 MW shortfall for Monday's peak after an actual 1,740 MW on Sunday, with seven thermal units out. [97] Infobae reports some Havana circuits went more than 52 hours without power and garbage collection is failing. [98]

Assessment: Deficits are rising day on day with no fuel relief in sight.

PERU: Lima transport strike over extortion

More than 50 Lima transport firms suspended service on Tuesday after another driver was killed; prosecutors count 93 transport workers killed this year. [99] The justice minister is fast-tracking modular prisons for a system holding 107,000 inmates against capacity for 42,000. [100]

Assessment: Repeated transport strikes are likely.

GUATEMALA: Electoral tribunal says deputy's killing was not electoral violence

Pre-window onset. Deputy Julio Portillo and three police officers were killed in Zacapa on 6 November. [101] The TSE said it does not classify the attack as electoral violence and flagged 52 municipalities at high risk before the 2027 vote. [102]

Assessment: High-profile killings ahead of the 2027 election call test the government's security credibility.

CENTRAL AMERICA: NHC drops the Pacific low

NHC now expects no tropical cyclone formation in either the Eastern Pacific or the Atlantic for seven days. [103] [104]

Assessment: The tropical threat has ended, though saturated soils keep a local landslide risk.

Collection gap: Nothing verifiable in-window for Brazil, Haiti reprisals, Apure or the SOFA talks, Honduras, Peru's Tumbes floods or Cilia Flores.
